NEWS FROM THE OFFICE OF CATECHESIS

INQUIRY

RCIA INQUIRY PERIOD -- Do you know someone who has questions about Catholic belief and practice? If so, please invite that person to participate in the RCIA Inquiry sessions that are being held Sunday mornings, 9:45-11 am in the Library. The Inquiry Team will be present to answer questions and provide short, informal talks on topics usually brought up by those inquiring into the Faith. Please offer to attend at least the initial session with the inquirer to ease any feelings of discomfort. Also assure your friend or family member they will not be "pestered" if they decide to discontinue attending the sessions. Want more info? Give Judi Summers a call - 223-0196, or contact Jan Carnahan, 425-5617, jancarnahan1@ncrrbiz.com.

CHILDREN'S DISMISSAL - The response to the children's dismissal at the 11:30 Mass has been wonderful. The children enjoy listening to the gospel as it is told in story form, supplemented by reading from the children's lectionary.

The average number of children ages 4-9 years old who are participating each week is 40. Sometimes the number has exceeded 50! As a result, we have had to create another group. So the children are broken into three groups: 4-5 years old, 6-7 years old, and 8-9 years old. We are looking for a few adults who like to tell the story of Jesus to children. A copy of the children's lectionary and the children's bulletin is provided a week ahead of time so the adults can practice telling the story. Those who volunteer in this ministry do not need to attend another Mass or do extensive preparation. It's the perfect way to volunteer while you are here as it does not require any "extra" time. If you regularly attend the 11:30 Mass, this could be the "little way" to help. Why not say a prayer to St. Therese, the Little Flower of Jesus, who is patron of the "little way," and ask if this is right for you?

Youth News

Confirmation Class

CONFIRMATION CLASS - Be sure to bring your parents and sponsors to class THIS SUNDAY, NOV. 6TH, for Fr. T's presentation, "Why Your Saint's Name?"

He will explain why the Church encourages us to adopt the names of those who have served Christ in a heroic manner.

MIDDLE SCHOOL YOUTH MASS - Next Sunday, Nov. 13th, the middle school youth will serve in the various liturgical ministries at the 11:30 Mass. They have written the Prayers of the Faithful and practiced serving as readers, banner carrier, ushers and gift bearers. Several middle school altar servers have also volunteered to serve at that Mass. They are enthusiastic and eager to help the community make a joyful noise unto the Lord! Let us give thanks for the gift of these wonderful youth!

Children's Dismissal

MIDDLE SCHOOL PANTRY RAID - Get ready! The Middle School Youth Group have provided a list of needed items for the Thanksgiving and Christmas baskets that will be distributed by the Knights of Columbus.

Please purchase as many items as you are able and return them to the large boxes that will be placed at all the entrances of the church.

Bags are available in the Deacon's Den area and on the Middle School Bulletin Board in the Gathering Area. Please return items by Friday, November 11th. Let's help the youth in their effort to perform one of the Corporal Works of Mercy - Feed the Hungry. Thank you!

OFFICE OF CATECHESIS NEEDS A VOLUNTEER FOR THE OFFICE! - Pat Macaluso has joined her husband in Illinois, which is great for her, but sad for us. We will miss her dedication and office skills, not to mention her warm smile and happy voice on the phone. If you, or someone you know, can volunteer one day a week, is computer knowledgeable, has basic office skills, likes to run the copy machine and enjoys a variety of tasks to assist catechists, please contact Jan Carnahan - 425-5617 or jancarnahan1@ncrrbiz.com.
