DO YOU LIKE TO READ BIBLE STORIES TO CHILDREN?

If so, we could use your talent for the Children's Dismissal, which occurs during the 11:30 Mass each week. We would like to build a team of volunteers large enough that each volunteer would serve only once a month. Volunteers must be willing to attend Safe Environment Training (SET) or have already taken it within the last four years. The response from the children has been enthusiastic, and the adults have thoroughly enjoyed helping the children understand the gospel reading each week. Want more info? Contact Jan Carnahan, 425-5617.

SUMMER TIME, FAMILY TIME! --

Sing along now, "Summer time, when the livin' is easy. Summer time, when the cotton is high. Yo' daddy's rich and yo' mammy's good lookin'. So hush little baby. Don't you cry." That song conjures images of families taking time to be together and create special memories. One opportunity families will have this summer to do that is to attend the SUMMER BIBLE EXPERIENCE here at Good Shepherd, July 11-15 (Mon.-Fri.), 6:30-8:30 pm. Fr. T will join the families for this special time and lead the adult group each evening, which will focus on learning and praying the Third Edition of the Roman Missal. The children's groups (ages 5-8 & 9-12) will use fun stories and creative activities to experience the power and presence of the Holy Spirit today. Children under the age of 5 will be able to go to the nursery. A summer time snack and game will end each evening. REGISTRATION IS NECESSARY TO ENSURE ENOUGH MATERIALS ARE ON HAND. Please sign the registration sheet posted on the Office of Catechesis bulletin board and indicate the number who will participate, and ages of children.

Father T, Deacon Pat, Parish Council, Finance Council and the Staff wish all of you and blessed and safe Memorial Day.

To help celebrate the holiday, the office will be closed on Monday, May 30. We will reopen on Tuesday, May 31 at 9:00am.
