GOOD SHEPHERD COMMUNITY OUTREACH

“Jesus established his Church, the sacrament of salvation carrying out the mandate that Jesus Christ has given to all who profess belief in him to love one another as he had loved us.

Most of us forget the significance of parishes — established to carry out Christ’s mandate to ‘love one another’ — in the life and development of our communities.

I have often reminded those in our modern society who criticize the Church’s involvement — claiming a need for a separation of Church and State — that they have truly short memories. They fail to realize the Church was teaching and educating members of society before public education was available. The Church provided hospitals before the government cared for the sick and dying, Catholic Charities reached out to the destitute and needy before welfare programs were established and parishes kept citizens informed and organized before the local governmental community formed area agencies. The parish was at the service of the community, and it still maintains that sense of service to this very day. The heart of the parish is at the service of the faithful in the name of Jesus in collaboration with the archdiocese for the good of the community. “

Most Rev. Jerome E. ListECKi, Archbishop of the Archdiocese of Milwaukee

The Holy Stitches Ministry of Good Shepherd Parish created this gorgeous quilt as a gift to the Women’s Giving Circle of Cumberland County, which partnered with Habitat for Humanity in building a home for a local family in need. This quilt will be presented to the family as a Welcome Gift for their new home!

St. Irenaeus of Lyon wrote, “The glory of God is man fully alive.”
We glorify God through our humanity and service to God through service to others.

What gifts to you have to share with the community?
You, too can be a witness to our Catholic Faith in our local area!

Pope Francis' Prayer Intention for March For the New Martyrs

The "New Martyrs" include our brothers and sisters compelled to flee their homelands, leaving behind friends, families, and the familiar embrace of their cultures due to their unwavering faith in the Lord. May the Sacred Heart of Jesus be their true and everlasting home, providing strength and healing amid their trials.

Furthermore, the "New Martyrs" are those who risk their lives to spread the Good News—missionaries and newly baptized—driven by profound love for Jesus' Holy Name. Their faith, known only to the Lord, compels them to take up His yoke and learn from Him. May the companionship of our Lord console and embolden them on their journey. In our prayers, we seek the intercession of the "New Martyrs" who have borne witness to their faith through the sacrifice of their lives. Through their intercession, may we grow in Faith, Hope, and Charity. <https://popesprayerusa.net/2024/02/29/>

For martyrs of our time

Good and Loving Father: Because we have been saved by your Son Jesus, the deceiver and father of lies hates us and stirs up persecution that, from the time of Jesus and of the early Church, continues to this day. The martyrs have had the grace to confess Jesus to the end, unto death. They suffer, they give their lives, and we receive God's blessing for their witness. May the memory of these ancient and recent heroic witnesses confirm us, O Lord, in the awareness that the Church is Church due to the sacrifice of martyrs. We pray to you today for the new hidden martyrs, those men and women faithful to the gentle power of love, to the voice of the Holy Spirit, who in their daily lives seek to help their brothers and sisters and to love God without reservation. The Church needs those who have the courage to accept the grace to be witnesses to the end, even unto death. They are the living blood of the Church, they are the witnesses who lead the Church forward; those who attest that Jesus is Risen, that He lives. May we learn through their coherence of life that with the strength of love, with meekness, we can fight against arrogance, violence and war. and with patience we can achieve peace. Amen

2024 FR. TIGHE MEMORIAL GOLF OUTING

The Foundation of the Roman Catholic

Diocese of Raleigh will be hosting this annual event on Monday, May 20, 2024 at Longleaf Golf and Family Club in Southern Pines.

As many of you know, Father Tighe was dedicated to our seminarians, especially in his role as Vocations Director.

In May of last year it was an honor to yet again raise awareness and build community in support of vocations to the priesthood for the Diocese of Raleigh, in memory of Father Tighe. Through the generosity of many, over $36,000 was raised for the Seminarian Partnership Program. These funds assist with the expenses associated with our seminarians intellectual and spiritual growth.

Retreat into the Passion of Jesus

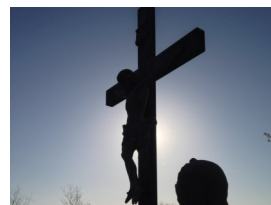

Each year, the Palm Sunday and Good Friday liturgies feature a reading of the Passion of Jesus Christ. It's a powerful and richly textured telling of the final hours of Jesus. It is also the core of the Gospel message and the foundation of the Christian faith.

This retreat is for those who want to make the most of these sacred liturgies in both understanding the historical context and reflecting upon the application to their own life. There will be a balanced blend of scriptural background, topics for reflection, and prayer.

The retreat will give you five reflections on the Passion narrative in the gospel of Mark (14:1 – 15:47). The reflections will touch upon both the historical background and the theological significance of each passage. From this, you'll better understand what they mean for today's world and what they mean for your own life.

PRAYER FOR OUR PARISH

Almighty God, my parish is composed of people like me. I help make it what it is. It will be friendly if I am. It will be holy if I am. Its pews will be filled if I help fill them. It will do great work if I work. It will be prayerful if I pray. It will make a generous gift for so many causes if I am a generous giver. It will bring other people into its worship if I invite and bring them. It will be a parish family of loyalty and love, fearlessness and faith, compassion, charity, and mercy if I — who make it what it is — am filled with the same qualities. Therefore, with the help of God, I will dedicate myself to the task of being all the things that I want my parish to be. Bless my journey, Lord God, I will dedicate myself to the task of being all the things that I want my parish to be. Bless my journey, Lord God that I might follow Jesus and build the Church for your glory. Amen.

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Father, we're your people, the work of your hands. So precious are we in your sight that you sent your Son, Jesus.

Jesus calls us to heal the broken-hearted, to dry the tears of those who mourn, to give hope to those who despair, and to rejoice in your steadfast love. We, the baptized, realize our call to serve.

Help us to know how. Call forth from among us priests, sisters, brothers and lay ministers. With our hearts you continue to love your people. We ask this through our Lord Jesus Christ, your Son, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God forever and ever. Amen.
