What's New With the Classes This Year?

As Catholics, we believe every person in the parish— from the youngest to the oldest— is a gift from God. Each of us has been given a talent or skill that enriches the life of the parish. We want to help children and teens know they are important members of the parish and they have gifts to share with us also. Starting this October, participants in 3rd -12th Grades will be asked to do the Second Reading at each of the weekend Masses. Parents, please pray for your children who like to read and when a Catechist contacts you to ask your child to be a reader, please speak with your child. We will provide training so they will be comfortable.

Thank you for sharing the gift of your children!

Bible Study

A new Bible Study session will begin on Wednesday, September 6th at 10:30am in Room 2.

We will be studying the Book of Exodus.

A sign-up sheet is available on the Welcome Table in the Gathering Area.

PRAYER FOR OUR PARISH

Almighty God, my parish is composed of people like me. I help make it what it is. It will be friendly if I am. It will be holy if I am. Its pews will be filled if I help fill them. It will do great work if I work. It will be prayerful if I pray. It will make a generous gift for so many causes if I am a generous giver. It will bring other people into its worship if I invite and bring them. It will be a parish family of loyalty and love, fearlessness and faith, compassion, charity, and mercy if I — who make it what it is — am filled with the same qualities. Therefore, with the help of God, I will dedicate myself to the task of being all the things that I want my parish to be. Bless my journey, Lord God, I will dedicate myself to the task of being all the things that I want my parish to be. Bless my journey, Lord God that I might follow Jesus and build the Church for your glory. Amen.

PRAYER FOR VOCATIONS

Heavenly Father, Bless your church with an abundance of holy and zealous priests, deacons, brothers and sisters. Give those you have called to the married state and those you have chosen to live as single persons in the world, the special graces that their lives require. Help those who have embraced the consecrated life to live up to their promises. Form us all in the likeness of your Son so that in Him, with Him and through Him we may love you more deeply and serve you more faithfully, always and everywhere. With Mary and Joseph, we ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

First Friday Devotion for Reparation to the Sacred Heart of Jesus

Our Lord said to Saint Margaret Mary Alacoque, "I promise you, in the excessive mercy of my Heart that my all powerful love will grant to all those who receive Holy Communion on the first Friday for nine consecutive months, the grace of final repentance; they shall not die in my disgrace nor without receiving the sacraments; my divine Heart shall be their safe refuge in that last moment."

Requirements of this Devotion:

1. The devotion is practiced for nine consecutive First Fridays of the month
2. Confession (sometime within a week before or after the First Friday) -
(Recommended to ensure proper state of grace)
3. Holy Communion
4. Done with the intent and spirit for reparation for offenses against the Sacred Heart of Jesus

Why Nine First Fridays?

The number nine is traditionally associated with a novena and finds its origin in the nine days that the apostles spent in prayer before Pentecost. A novena provides an extended amount of time for preparation and interior renewal.

The Reason for this Devotion:

The devotion is offered in reparation for sinners who commit offenses against the Sacred Heart of Jesus. These offenses are listed in the Act of Reparation Prayer made to the Sacred Heart. Jesus told Saint Margaret Mary that he wanted to spread the love of his heart through her and that she would reveal to many people the grace he desires always to bestow on humanity. In her vision, Margaret Mary saw Jesus take her heart and place it within his, setting it aflame with divine love that continued to burn in her heart as it returned to her body.

What does devotion to the Sacred Heart mean? Christ described his heart, according to Margaret Mary, as "the heart that has so loved humanity that it has spared nothing, even exhausting and consuming itself in testimony of its love." Thus, the Sacred Heart represents the fullness of God's love for humanity and the overflowing generosity of Christ's gift of self in the act of salvation.

Here at Good Shepherd, we celebrate the First Friday Devotion every month. Please join us!

Also join us for our First Saturday Devotion to the Immaculate Heart of Mary on the first Saturday of every month throughout the year.

The Sacred Heart of Jesus and The Immaculate of Mary—Two Hearts that beat as one

Schedules for both can be found in the bulletin each month.

First Saturday Devotion for Reparation to the Immaculate Heart of Mary

During her apparition at Fatima, Our Lady said to Lucia, “I shall come to ask...that on the First Saturday of every month, Communions of reparation be made in atonement for the sins of the world...Tell them that I promise to assist at the hour of death with the graces necessary for salvation, all those who, in order to make reparation to me, on the first Saturday for five successive months .”

Requirements of this Devotion:

1. The devotion is practiced for five consecutive First Saturdays of the month
2. Confession (sometime within a week before or after First Saturday)
3. Holy Communion
4. Pray five decades of the Rosary
5. Keep company with Mary for at least 15 minutes, meditating on the Mysteries included in the Rosary
(This is to be done in addition to praying the Rosary)
6. Done with the intent and spirit for reparation for offenses against the Immaculate Heart of Mary

Why Five First Saturdays?

The idea is to make us persevere in these devotional acts for five months, to overcome the initial obstacles. Once this is done, Our Lady knows that the person will -- if the person faithfully cooperates with her grace -- become attracted to her pure and Immaculate Heart and persevere in practicing such devotion on all First Saturdays, working towards our own personal sanctification, and for the salvation of others.

The Reason for this Devotion:

The devotion is offered in reparation for sinners who commit offenses against the Immaculate Heart of Mary:

1. Against her Immaculate Conception;
2. Against her Perpetual Virginity;
3. Against her Divine Maternity, while refusing to accept Mary also as the Mother of Humanity;
4. Offenses committed by those who publicly attempt to instill indifference, scorn and even hatred for this Immaculate Mother in the hearts of children;
5. Offenses committed by those who insult, reject and dishonor Mary in her images.

Here at Good Shepherd, we celebrate the First Saturday Devotion every month. Please join us!

Also join us for our First Friday Devotion to the Sacred Heart of Jesus on the first Friday of every month throughout the year.

The Sacred Heart of Jesus and The Immaculate of Mary—Two Hearts that beat as one

Schedules for both can be found in the bulletin each month.

Liturgical Ministries

Sacristans are responsible for setting the Altar and see to the care of the various candles located in the Sanctuary. They are also responsible for ensuring everything is in order for the celebration of Mass, allowing the Celebrant to concentrate solely on the liturgy.

"The sacristan diligently arranges the liturgical books, the vestments, and other things that are necessary for the celebration of Mass." General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM), #105(a)

The term Sacristan comes from the Latin word, sacer, which means sacred. Sacristans are often behind the scenes as prayerful ministers that bring to mind the words of Jesus when He said we should not do good works just to gain rewards (Matthew 6:1).

Lectors nourish the Faith of the community by proclaiming the Word of God in an audible and intelligible manner to the community.

"The lector is instituted to proclaim the readings from Sacred Scripture, with the exception of the Gospel. He may also announce the intentions for the Prayer of the Faithful and, in the absence of a psalmist, proclaim the Psalm between the readings." General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM), #99

On Word of God Sunday, January 2022, Pope Francis said of the Office of Lector, "They are called to the important work of serving the Gospel of Jesus, of proclaiming him, so that his consolation, his joy and his liberation can reach everyone."

Extraordinary Ministers assist with the Celebration by distributing the Precious Body and Blood of Christ to His people.

"A duly instituted acolyte, as an extraordinary minister, may, if necessary, assist the priest in giving Communion to the people. If Communion is given under both kinds, when no deacon is present, the acolyte administers the chalice to the communicants or holds the chalice if Communion is given by intinction." General Instruction of the Roman Missal (GIRM), #191

In his Angelus address of Sunday, August 16, 2015, Pope Francis said, "The Eucharist is Jesus who gives himself entirely to us. Nourishing ourselves on Him and abiding in Him through Eucharistic communion, if we do so in faith, transforms our lives into a gift to God and to our brothers and sisters."

Altar Servers carry the cross, the processional candles, hold the book for the priest celebrant when he is not at the altar, carry the incense and censer, present the bread, wine, and water to the priest during the preparation of the gifts or assist him when he receives the gifts from the people, wash the hands of the priest, assist the priest celebrant and deacon.

"In the earthly liturgy we take part in a foretaste of that heavenly liturgy which is celebrated in the holy city of Jerusalem toward which we journey as pilgrims, where Christ is sitting at the right hand of God, a minister of the holies and of the true tabernacle." SACROSANCTUM CONCILIUM, Ch. 1, §1, #8

Serving on the Altar is a very special way to serve our Lord. In May 2021, Pope Francis gave this message to Altar Servers: "Animated by respect and interior recollection, your service as an altar server will become a Profession of Faith for the community. Offer Jesus your hands, your thoughts and your time, and He will not fail to reward you, giving you true joy and making you feel where the most complete happiness is."
